Log#1070805

TO: Chief Administrator
Independent Police Review Authority

FROM: Inv. James Lukas, #117

SUBJECT: INFORMATION FROM WITNESS [REDACTED] BLACK MALE [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

On 05 August 2014, at approximately 1950 hours, the R/I called the phone number from Event Query [REDACTED] and spoke to a male who identified himself as [REDACTED]. The Event Query indicated that when [REDACTED] called 911 about the incident under investigation, he related that an "officer" was beating up a female.

Upon inquiry, [REDACTED] related that he observed the incident under investigation, in which an officer pulled a female out of a vehicle and "threw" her to the ground. The female was not resisting the officer at that time. The R/I asked [REDACTED] if he thought the officer's actions were "out of line," and he agreed. [REDACTED] said he video-recorded part of the incident, but did not know if the video still existed on his cell phone. He agreed to be interviewed at IPRA at 1600 hours on 08 August 2014.

INDEPENDENT POLICE REVIEW AUTHORITY

08 August 2014
Log #1070805

TO: Chief Administrator
Independent Police Review Authority

FROM: Inv. Shannon Hayes, #137

SUBJECT: Telephone Contact with [REDACTED]

On 08 August 2014, at approximately 0915 hours, the R/I telephoned [REDACTED] and spoke to the reporting party, [REDACTED]. The R/I asked [REDACTED] to provide more detailed information about what happened during the incident about which she complained.

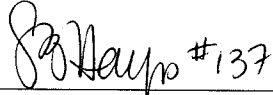

[REDACTED] stated that she was driving from Lake Shore Drive toward I-90/94. [REDACTED] stated that she must have "unconsciously" thought she was going home, but she actually needed to stop and get gas. Once she realized that she was going in the wrong direction, she jumped her car over the lane so she could get off the expressway. A police officer stopped her and she pulled to the side of the expressway. The officer asked for her drivers license and then told [REDACTED] to exit the expressway and stop her car. [REDACTED] stated that she did not trust the officer so she did not stop her car where he indicated for her to do so. Instead, she drove to a gas station and stopped her car there. [REDACTED] thought this was a good idea because she needed to get gas anyway. The officer told [REDACTED] that he stopped her because she got off the expressway dangerously. [REDACTED] was sarcastic back to the officer and told him that the only dangerous thing she did was the way she switched lanes. The officer asked [REDACTED] to get out of the car. [REDACTED] refused to do so and said that the officer should first ask for her driver's license and insurance. (It should be noted that [REDACTED] told the R/I that the officer had already asked for her license while they were still on the expressway.) [REDACTED] stated that, although she refused to get out of her car, she did not believe that she was resisting the officer because her window was rolled down. The officer reached into the car, unlocked the door, pulled [REDACTED] from the car, and forced her to the ground. [REDACTED] refused to cooperate with the officer throughout this action. She related that the officer "manhandled" her and was "aggressive" in the way he did this. The officer then lifted [REDACTED] to her feet, causing her legs to scrape on the ground. [REDACTED] stated that it seemed like she was being "dragged," but the only physical action she described was that he pulled her to her feet. The officer tried to put [REDACTED] in his squad car but she refused to get in because she did not trust him. She repeatedly asked the officer to bring other officers on the scene but she did not think that he did so. The officer forced [REDACTED] into the squad car, where she sat on the edge of the seat with her legs out of the car. The officer tried to turn [REDACTED]'s body and push her legs into the car but she refused to cooperate with him and he was unable to do so. Another squad car and an ambulance arrived. [REDACTED] believed that the ambulance was driving in the area and stopped to offer assistance. The paramedics cleaned and bandaged [REDACTED] scratches but she declined medical attention. [REDACTED]

Log #1070805
Att.#

[REDACTED] returned to the squad car so the first officer could transport her to the police station. [REDACTED] stated that the officer treated her respectfully during her processing at the police station and that he explained each step of the process.

[REDACTED] stated that she returned to the gas station later and learned that they did not have any video recording of the incident. [REDACTED] agreed to email photographs of her injuries to IPRA. She stated that she had bruises on her arms and legs for two weeks after the incident.

The R/I informed [REDACTED] that an in-person interview was probably not needed but that someone from IPRA would contact her if further information was needed. [REDACTED] thanked the R/I and appeared to be satisfied with the conversation. The R/I also telephoned [REDACTED] a witness to the incident who called 911 to report that an officer was "beating" a female. (See Inv. James Lukas' report regarding their conversation.) The R/I informed [REDACTED] that the information he provided to Inv. Lukas was sufficient and that he did not need to provide an in-person statement. [REDACTED] thanked the R/I.
